Residence, No. 17.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1913

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. Percy M. Feltham spent several days here last week.

Mrs. Wallace C. Tompkins was hostess of the sewing club Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Giles D. Mims of Falfa was among the visitors in Edgefield Friday.

Mr. Clint Graydon of Columbia spent several days here last week with relatives.

Fresh shipment of Georgia syrup just received.
Timmons & Morgan.

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman and Miss Annie Darlington spent Friday and Saturday in Augusta visiting friends.

Mr. W. W. Sheppard has been spending the past week in Edgefield. His friends gave him a most cordial welcome.

Carnivals find Edgefield rather a dull town. The people here have become too blasé for such tame shows to afford diversion.

Best granulated sugar, 25 lb sacks for $1.35.
Bright's Cash Store.

Mrs. C. C. Fuller, Jr., of McCormick, nee Miss Lillie May Bailey, is here visiting her father, Col. F. N. K. Bailey.

The petit jury for the second week of court is published in this issue. Court convenes next Monday.

Give us your order for that Easter Suit, we save you money.
Bright's Cash Store.

Mrs. Ida F. Sheppard has had her residence on Main street beautifully painted. The body of the house is dark green with cream trimmings.

Mrs. F. N. K. Bailey is at the bedside of her father who is seriously ill at his home in Kentucky. Col. Bailey accompanied her to Kentucky and returned Thursday.

The grain crop looks more and more promising which causes the farmers to smile more and more broadly. A good harvest of oats in this county means the saving of hundreds of dollars in buying western corn.

Mr. S. McGowan Simkins, the reading clerk of the house, came over from Columbia Saturday night and remained until this morning. He expressed the opinion that the legislature would reach an adjournment Saturday.

Dr. J. B. Black, state senator from Bamberg county, came over from Columbia and remained here with Col. Bailey until Tuesday morning when he resumed his duties in the senate. Mrs. Black came up from Bamberg and joined him here.

Masters Elbert and Truman Mundy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mundy, were baptized at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The going down of these two little brothers into the baptismal waters at one time presented a very beautiful scene.

Mince meat 15c. size for 10c, 30c, size for 20c.
Bright's Cash Store.

Bargains in suits, shoes, hats, lace, dresses, granite ware, harness, etc., at Sharpston's, Clark's Hill, S. C.—Adv.

Mr. Robert Kearsey spent Monday in Edgefield mingling with old friends and looking over the scenes of his boyhood days. Mr. Kearsey is assistant postmaster at Albany, Ga., having filled that position for the last eight years.

If you want the best bargain in shoes that you ever bought, come to our store. During the next ten days we will sell a lot of broken sizes in $2.00, $3.00 and $4.00 shoes for $1.19. Better come at once.
Mukashy Bargain House.

Mr. Spann Toney, one of the most progressive young farmers in the county, was in town yesterday bringing with him a sample of white peas which he grows. He is greatly pleased with this particular variety. His father, the lamented Mark Toney, planted them for many years.

See "Down in Dixie," a comedy in three acts, that will be presented in the opera house to-night, Wednesday.

Get tickets at once for the pleasing comedy that will appear before the foot-lights in the opera house to-night. They are now on sale at the Penn drug store.

Mirrors, like figures, do not lie. If the big mirrors in the Penn drug store do not make you as good looking as you think you are, do not blame the mirrors. Possibly your "looks" more highly than you should.

Dodson liver tone 50c size for 40c.
Bright's Cash Store.

Under the direction of the Smith-Marsh Company Buster Brown will give an entertainment to-morrow. Read their advertisement in this issue.

Mr. W. H. Turner spent last week in Edgefield looking after the interests of the Corner Store. He and Mrs. Turner are greatly pleased with their Greenwood home.

Several days ago Mr. D. A. Tompkins sent the public library nine valuable books from Charlotte. Mr. Tompkins can always be relied upon to aid in the promotion of every worthy enterprise. The ladies who have charge of the library greatly appreciated his generosity.

All orders must be accompanied by cash, or send cash on delivery.
Bright's Cash Store.

We always carry a large assortment of fresh cakes and crackers from the National Biscuit Company.
Timmons & Morgan.

Bright's Cash Store.

We sell McKinley sheet music, vocal and instrumental, the most popular music published, 10c a copy. Ask for complete catalog.
W. E. Lynch & Co.

Our wire stretchers are out among farmers who have purchased wire from us. Those who are through stretching their wire will please return the stretchers as early as convenient.
Edgefield Mercantile Co.

Walk in the Penn drug store, look to the right and you will see yourself as others see you. The only difference is you involuntarily straighten up and try to appear at your best after getting a glimpse of the Ego.

The Corner Store announces this week the arrival of the early spring fabrics and invites the ladies to call. These purchases were made by Mr. Turner in person while in New York several weeks ago and they are certain to please the patrons of this popular store. Miss Kate Samuel is also showing many new creations in the millinery department.

When you attend court next week call at The Advertiser office and pay the amount you are due on subscription, if you are in arrears. The date on your label will show how your subscription stands.

Mrs. D. B. Hollingsworth went to the Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore yesterday afternoon for special treatment. Her friends hope she will soon return fully restored to health.

Mr. Hendricks, the special representative of the Southern Railway, met with a number of farmers here last Friday according to appointment. About twenty have enrolled their names as members of the corn club. Mr. Hendricks will make another visit as soon as he is notified that the members of the club need him to start them off with their special acres.

Come to us for household paints, oils, varnish, brushes, etc.
Timmons & Morgan.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the good people of Edgefield for their efforts to save my warehouse from being destroyed by fire but failed. My business will be continued as heretofore.
E. S. Johnson.

Program.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. B. Cogburn at 3:30 o'clock. Subject, Humane education. Devotions, Mrs. T. H. Rainesford.
"The boy and the camera," Mrs. Hollingsworth.
"The story of Mary Ellen," Mrs. W. E. Lott.
"Humane education in South Carolina," Mrs. M. D. Jeffries.
Selection, the glass.
Railroad, Miss Florence Peak.
Talk by Dr. J. H. Carmichael.

S. C. C. I. News.

Cadet E. S. Dunbar led a splendid joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Sunday night. Rev. P. P. Blalock spoke from the 15th chapter of John, using as his main thought "Cleanliness." This address was very forceful, appealing and soul stirring. Capt. Taylor certainly secured for us a magnificent speaker. We wish Mr. Blalock would again honor us with another talk.

Mr. A. S. Tompkins was at the college last Wednesday week and spoke at the morning chapel exercises. His talk on "Courage," with his many stories was greatly enjoyed by all.

Dr. M. D. Jeffries gave us a fine talk last Friday morning at morning chapel devotions.

Our President, Col. F. N. K. Bailey, returned last Tuesday week from a long business trip. Unfortunately upon arrival Col. Bailey was ordered to his bed and he has just made his appearance again among the students after his recent illness.

Senator and Mrs. J. B. Black of Bamberg were at the college last week visiting Col. Bailey and family.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Fuller of McCormick, also are at the college visiting Mrs. Fuller's father, Col. Bailey.

Mrs. G. D. Mims of Clark's Hill was here last week to see her daughter.

The cadets were excused drill all last week on account of the extremely wet weather. However the band squad practiced daily as their practicing can be done indoors.

Cadet Balfour Foster of Greenville left Sunday morning to attend to his sick father. Cadet Foster was a very promising student in the Sophomore class, liked by both the faculty and students.

Last week a baseball match between the lower classes was played. The whole battalion turned out to watch the interesting match. This is the score: Seniors and Juniors 8; Sophomores and Freshman 5.

This week there is to be another fierce match between the above classes.

We are expecting the February issue of the "Co-Ed." out by about Thursday.

The Pierian Literary Society met again Monday afternoon. The debate "Resolved that it is better to have a university in the country than in a city" was won by the negative. This time the orator deserves mention.

The Fidelity Literary also met Monday. No debate was had as several of the debaters were absent. Miss Vivian Johnson entertained the society by a fine selection, followed by piano solos by Misses Sadie Tyler and Jean McLucas. Miss Faith Snuggs recited in Chinese.

The following young ladies are away on leave: Miss Grace Etheredge, to Saluda, Miss Leila Bandy to Aiken, Miss Sallie Mae Miller to Edgefield. Miss Etheredge is away attending a social given in honor of the graduation of her brother from a business college in Columbia. Mr. Etheredge was formerly a C. I. cadet.

Miss Kitty Hutto bade the college "goodbye" Monday morning to return to her home in Richland county.

The editors have a scheme on foot to raise money for a special Commencement issue of our "Co-Ed." Watch next week's Advertiser for particulars.

Church Notices

While everybody is cordially invited every member, is earnestly requested to be present at the Edgefield Methodist church next Sunday at the morning service, and at Trenton Methodist church at 3:30. Communion service will be held at both places.

A sermon of interest to everybody will be preached by Rev. J. R. Walker at the Edgefield mill next Sunday night at 7:30. The pastor wishes especially every drinking man to be present, wherever he may live.

Dr. M. D. Jeffries of the Baptist church has been preaching a series of sermons to young Christians. Next Sunday morning will be the third on "The young Christian and his development." At 7:45 p. m. the pastor expects to discuss that much talked of and little thought of subject, "Personal liberty." The church is starting out on a series of twelve black-board talks on Wednesday nights on "How to grow in the Christian life." Next Wednesday night will be the third.
